Don't miss: Filastine

Grey Filastine works out of Barcelona, Spain, but he absorbs the world's music. He gives Bollywood-style loops a computerized glitch sheen, layers Arabic vocals over burbling bass, drops Spanish raps over chopped-up accordion music and suffuses instrumental beats with the shouts and noise of international uprisings and protests. Filastine's second album, "Dirty Bomb," hit stores in January, and he lands at 103 Harriet Street to headline Temple of Mirrors, where he'll add his cacophonous, body-shocking sounds to a night dedicated to global rhythm. Other DJs spinning that night include Anten-nae and Random Rab.

10 p.m. Fri. $15-$20. 21+. 103 Harriet St., S.F. (415)

431-1200. www.anten-nae.net.
